

Aharon B. Kaslow

Aharon B. Kaslow specializes in complex commercial litigation. He is experienced in a variety of matters including international and domestic business disputes, as well as employment litigation. Prior to joining Bird Marella, Aharon clerked for the Honorable Alex Kozinski in the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Aharon is a lineal descendant of the Lone Band of Miwok Indians and is deeply knowledgeable in Native American affairs. He has served as Co-President for the Native American Law Student Association at Harvard Law School, the President of the Native American Pre-Law Society at Stanford University, and as an intern for the Navajo Nation Department of Justice in Arizona.