

Bird Marella Secures Complete Dismissal in Long-Term Care Elder Abuse Matter

Bird Marella attorneys Benjamin Gluck and Kimberley Miller recently secured a complete dismissal of all charges in a criminal complaint filed against a Director of Nursing and two other mandated reporters at a California long-term care facility who were charged with failure to report alleged elder abuse. Based on Benjamin and Kimberley's arguments, the prosecutors moved to dismiss the entire case and the Court granted the motion.