

Gary Lincenberg Discusses Environmental Crimes Enforcement

Bird Marella principal Gary Lincenberg recently spoke on a panel at the American Bar Association's 32nd Annual National Institute on White Collar Crime. Mr. Lincenberg discussed the environmental crime caseload inherited by the new Administration, examined how it is being handled, how courts have been reacting and may react in the future, as well as sharing experiences from cases.

To view the full video, please click here.